Statement Draft

We urgently ask you to call, email and fax Pelosi and Murtha with the following statement:

Please add the provision to the Supplemental Appropriations Bill stating that no funding can be used for a military attack on Iran and any such action must have congressional authorization. The 2002 War Powers Act does not allow for any attack on Iran.

House Armed Services Chairman

Sonya Reines Search for Common Ground

Bill Miller, former Ambassador

Retired military

Not anti-Bush, Attacking Iran would be a disaster for everyone. We have an opportunity to make a different choice

Convince Obama: It's advantageous to oppose this. The candidate who is against the attack will be in the best position in 2008
